

Public invited to preview the latest golf equipment at WinStar Golf's Demo Days

Monthly event will feature popular golf products

THACKERVILLE – WinStar Golf Club officials invite the public to test the latest golf equipment from major manufacturers during the club's Demo Days series.

The first Demo Day will be held at the WinStar Golf Academy from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, April 9.

WinStar Golf professional and instructor Jon Stephenson, who is also the course's director of fitting, will demonstrate products from golf brand names including Ping, Titleist, Callaway and PXG.

"These events are for golfers considering a new set of clubs," Stephenson said. "Demo Day allows them to book a fitting and get a hands-on experience of the latest and greatest golf equipment."

WinStar will hold seven Demo Days. The first is April 9 featuring Ping. Additional dates and manufacturers are: May 28, Titleist; June 18, Callaway; July 30, PXG; Aug. 13, Nike; Aug. 20, TaylorMade; and Sept. 3, Hogan.

Visitors who purchase Demo Day merchandise will receive a free gift and fitting, worth up to $250.

While attending Demo Days, guests are encouraged to visit the WinStar Golf Academy, the only public golf academy in Oklahoma or Texas. The cutting-edge facility features two indoor bays that allow golfers to play on simulated courses. Additional indoor practice options include a putting studio and 3D swing analysis.

Michael Ferguson, WinStar Golf Club's general manager, said Demo Days are also a perfect time for guests to book a tee time on the 27-hole, D.A. Weibring-designed golf course.
