Twenty-two foot Christmas tree greets WinStar patrons

Thackerville, Okla. – The holiday season is upon us and WinStar World Casino and Resort has a special viewing treat for patrons. The casino has undergone a holiday transformation starting in the main entrance, near the Rome Gaming Plaza.

WinStar officials hired the holiday decorating experts from Calvert’s Plant Interiors out of Oklahoma City to hang and assemble the many decorations seen throughout the casino.

“We have a total of 15 trees throughout the casino floor,” said Wayne McCormick, WinStar’s general manager. “As patrons enter through the main doors near the Rome Gaming Plaza, they are greeted with an immaculately decorated 22-foot Christmas tree, flanked by two large golden reindeer statues. It is a beautiful sight and we are grateful for the many hours the Calvert decorating team has put into the project.”

It took a 10-person crew working for five days and 13 hours a day to decorate the sprawling 630,800-square-foot casino floor.

“WinStar is one of our larger clients,” said Abbie Wilkerson, Calvert’s sales and design manager. “Our team worked a total of 65 hours to decorate WinStar. We used about one-half mile of garland throughout the gaming floor.”

The garland can be found on the wooden arches at the entrance of each of the eight gaming plazas and in various locations in the casino. Wilkerson said another interesting fact, the total height of the 15 WinStar trees equals around 15-stories.

“We enjoy this time of the year,” said Wilkerson. “It’s gratifying to see the guests admire the decorations and take their pictures in front of the trees.”

In addition to the holiday decorations, WinStar offers guests a variety of holiday entertainment.

The Brian Setzer Orchestra will perform at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 11 inside the Global Event Center. The performance is the bands’ 13th annual Christmas Rocks! Tour. Other December entertainment includes country musician Chris Young, Jason Isbell, comedian Eddie Izzard, Dwight Yoakam and a special New Year’s Eve performance by the legendary Don Henley.
